Tatyaa(Suresh Vishwakarma) sees them meeting, during a birthday party in the backyard of home. They decide to run away to Hyderabad., Parshya's friends Langdya(Tanaji Gaigunde) and Salya(Arbaz Shaikh) help them. Here they, live a struggleful life. A local woman Suman Akka(Chhaya Kadam) helps them, Archi, decides to go back home but love for Parshya brings her back. They marry and after many, years Archi phones her mother. Prince (Suraj Pawar),Archi's brother, comes to Hyderabad, and ends their lives., 2)Characters/Cast--The producer and director Nagraj Manjule has introduced many new, faces with no acting background.Rinku and Akash are in leading roles. Suraj and Suresh, Vishwakarma are the villains. Other minor characters have played their parts very effectively, and they fit to make this film a mixture of comic and serious actions., 3)Music and Songs--Audience is forced to dance to the rhythm of the song 'Zing zing zingal.'. 'Sairat zala ji' and 'Yad lagla' are other melodious songs in the film.The music by Ajay-Atul, makes it an unforgettable film., 4)Weak and Strong Points--The only minor weak point to my view is the 170 minutes length, of the film.It could easily have been shorter by at least 20 minutes.Acting,music and the story, that hold the attention of the audience for 170 minutes are the strong points of the film., 5)Special Features--'Sairat' is essentially two films or two types of narratives rolled into one., The first is a love story with a number of playful moments, songs, love and romance. The, second narrative is realistic and heartbreaking. It's a reminder that all dreams must come to, an end and should stand the test of reality., 6)Overall Impact/My Opinion About the Film--'Sairat' is not an easy film to make or to grasp., While I recommend it, I would also warn the audience to pause and take a deep breath, before passing the judgement, one way or another.Action,music,drama,the realistic village, and metro city setting,dialogues and the rustic language make it a must watch film. I will give, four stars to the film.
